General Poultry Exhibitor Rules and Guidelines:

1. Exhibitor Rules and Guidelines: All poultry exhibitors are required to abide by the Junior Fair Rules and Regulations, Junior Fair Livestock Special Rules, and Inspection & Health Requirements of Livestock Exhibited in Ohio listed in this Fair Book as well as the department rules to follow. Please read carefully all rules and guidelines. Note: Exhibitors must comply with Ohio’s Livestock Tampering Exhibition Rules. The Clark County Fair will provide livestock exhibitors and adult advisors a copy of Chapter 901-19 (Ohio’s Livestock Tampering Exhibition Rules) upon request.

2. Avian Influenza Impact:

   Plan A: No ban enforced by ODA. All poultry projects to proceed as live exhibits.

   Plan B: Avian influenza ban in effect.

   1. All 4-H and FFA members wanting to exhibit must enroll in the poultry project(s) by the deadlines listed in rule 3.

   2. If the ban has not been lifted or is reinstated by Feb. 1, 2016, live Turkeys will not be shown or sold at the Fair.

   3. If the ban has not been lifted or is reinstated by April 1, 2016, live Chicken & Ducks will not be shown or sold at the Fair.

   4. If the ban is reinstated any time before the Clark County Fair, live birds will not be shown or sold at the Fair.

   5. The Egg production project will be allowed to bring one dozen eggs to the Fair if permitted by the ban enforced by ODA.

3. Current 4-H & FFA Members: Only currently enrolled members may exhibit, show and/or sell poultry at the Clark Co. Jr. Fair. 4-H members must be enrolled in a club with a poultry project by April 1st of the current year. FFA members must have a valid Jr. Fair Entry filed with the Sr. Fair Office by May 15th of the current year.

4. Livestock Quality Assurance: All market poultry (meat chickens, market ducks & turkey) exhibitors will be required to have participated in a current Livestock Quality Assurance program in order to show and sell at the Clark County Fair. This requirement must be met in order to comply with ODA Livestock Tamper Regulations.

5. Skill-a-thon/Project Judging: 4-H poultry exhibitors must bring up-to-date project book(s), record book(s), and feed tag(s) for all projects to skill-a-thon/project judging. All 4-H poultry exhibitors must go through poultry skill-a-thon/project judging to be eligible to show their poultry projects at the Clark County Junior Fair.

6. Outstanding Project Book: 4-H and FFA members wishing to enter the Outstanding Poultry Project Book Contest must submit their project book(s) for judging when they participate in the Skill-a-thon/Project Judging. Project books will be judged and available for pick-up at fair check-in or the youth building.

7. Health Requirements & Bird Identification:

   A. All birds and fowl must be free of contagious or infectious disease including lice and mites.

   B. All turkeys, chickens and game birds must originate from a flock that has had a negative test for Pullorum/Fowl Typhoid or the birds must have a negative test for pullorum/fowl typhoid disease within 90 days of the opening day of Fair. Waterfowl (ducks and geese), doves and pigeons are not required to have a Pullorum test. Meat pen chickens, turkeys and meat ducks must have NPIP hatchery papers.

   C. Identification Requirement: All poultry (chickens and turkeys), waterfowl (ducks & geese) and specialty must be properly identified by the exhibitor before check-in. Acceptable forms of identification include leg bands or zip ties/twists with permanent marker.

   D. Poultry (chickens or turkeys) and waterfowl (ducks or geese) that experience an unforeseen accident/illness between check-in and show may be replaced by the exhibitor with another one from their own flock.

8. Drug Use Notification (DUNF): The exhibitor must complete a Drug Use Notification Form (DUNF) on his/her meat chicken pen, market turkey and/or meat duck. The exhibitor AND his/her parent/legal guardian must sign the form unless the exhibitor is age 18. The exhibitor is required to turn in the completed form at Fair Weigh-In to the Rabbit & Poultry Committee.

9. Authorized Showman and Seller: Exhibitors must show and/or sell their own poultry on the judging table and/or in the ring. If an exhibitor is unable to show or sell his/her own poultry, the exhibitor must get permission from the Junior Fair Board/Rabbit & Poultry Committee for another exhibitor to show and/or sell their poultry.

10. Dress Code: All poultry exhibitors MUST enter the show and sale ring wearing closed toed shoes, long pants or appropriate length skirts or skorts and a shirt with a collar or club/chapter t-shirt/ polo shirt. No cut-offs -- shirts or pants, no spaghetti, tank or tube tops. Chicken exhibitors are encouraged to wear a white lab coat. Exhibitors that come inappropriately dressed to the show and/or sale ring will be disqualified from the show and/or will not be permitted to sale their project through the Livestock Auction.

11. Barn Rules:
   A. No cedar shavings for any poultry project. Exhibitors must clean pens daily and furnish own bedding and feed by 9:00 AM. All pens must be cleaned daily by 9:00 AM and aisles must be kept cleaned. Used bedding must be put in the designated area. All meat chicken pens in the Rabbit Barn must be clean and torn down immediately after load-out on Thursday, July 28. All pens (market turkeys and ducks) in Barn 6 must be cleaned out by 10:00 PM on Thursday, July 28. If the pen isn’t cleaned out, the child will not sell in the auction. Production Turkey, duck and geese pens must be cleaned by noon on Saturday, July 30. Fancy and production poultry pens must be cleaned out by 10 PM on Fri., July 29.
   B. Rabbit & Poultry Committee members will inspect pens and cages daily to ensure that all birds are properly cared for by the exhibitor (i.e. – fed, watered, clean bird and pen, etc.). Pens and birds not cared for will be tagged with a colored card (yellow – 1st time, orange – 2nd time, and red – 3rd time). Exhibitors whose pens are tagged with a red card will not be allowed to sell their birds in the Jr. Fair Livestock Auction.
   C. Receptacles for feed and water must be present before birds will be cooped. Plastic milk jugs or two liter bottles that are fastened to the cage may be used as the water containers for all poultry. Feeders allowed are same as water containers & heavy large plastic cups. Paper, Styrofoam or Solo drinking cups are not permitted. No zip ties. Receptacles must be able to be removed and cleaned daily.
   D. One bird per cage/pen – Except for breeding ducks and turkeys penned together. No locks may be put on the pens/cages.
   E. Duck &Turkey exhibitor’s must provide some type of ventilation barrier between cages/pens (e.g. snow fence).
   F. The Poultry Barns’ Hours are 7:00 AM to 10:00 PM.
   G. No “For Sale” signs may be posted before noon Wednesday of Fair. No sold poultry will be released until 10:00 AM Thursday.
   H. The Junior Fair Board/Rabbit & Poultry Committee is not responsible for lost or stolen 4-H or FFA projects.
   I. Failure to comply with any barn rules may result in not being able to exhibit the following year.
   J. Auction Required! Grand Champion and Reserve Grand Champion of class 300 will sell at the Jr. Fair Auction.

12. Animal Dismissal:
   A. Once a bird arrives on the fairgrounds, the bird may not leave until all poultry are released without official fair veterinarian approval or a simple majority vote from the Clark Co. 4-H & FFA Rabbit & Poultry Committee. Exhibitor’s poultry removed from the fairgrounds without authorized approval won’t be allowed to participate in the poultry show(s) for one (1) year and/or will forfeit all awards, premiums including auction money.

13. Extra Birds:
   A. No extra birds will be housed in the barns during Fair!
   B. Sell of extra animals will occur after the species has been loaded out on the resale trailer. Transactions are between the exhibitor and the resale buyer, not the sales committee.

14. Resolution Committee:
   A. The Junior Fair Rabbit & Poultry Committee reserves the right to rule on items or interpretations of all rules and items not stated.
   B. When satisfactory evidence has been obtained by the Junior Fair Board/Rabbit & Poultry Committee that any poultry rules have been violated, the exhibitor and/or exhibitor’s family may be barred from the showing of poultry at the Clark County Fair for at least one (1) year.

15. Protests:
   A. The appropriate species committees and/or Livestock Sale Committee, Jr. and Sr. Fair Boards will handle protests specific to department rules governing shows, events, contests and sales. Protests must be made in writing accompanied with a $50.00 check made payable to the Clark Co. Fair Board and presented to the chairperson of the specific Junior Fair Department, refundable if the protest is allowed.
   B. In the event of a protest arising over the interpretation 4-H exhibitor eligibility requirements (i.e. – skill-a-thon completion, age/grade requirements, club meeting requirements, activity fee requirements, dual projects, etc.), such protest must be made in writing, accompanied with a $50 check, refundable if protest is allowed and filed in the 4-H office at the Youth Building. Protest will be reviewed by the Clark County 4-H Extension Educators and the Clark County 4-H Advisory Committee’s Resolution Committee and acted upon. FFA exhibitor eligibility interpretation is governed by the team of Vocational Agriculture instructors and protests accompanied with a $50 check, refundable if protest is allowed and filed in the FFA office in the Youth Bldg.

16. Fair Suspension: When satisfactory evidence has been obtained by the Clark County Agricultural Society Board of Directors that any individual(s) have been suspended from participation in a fair or exposition, the individual(s) is suspended from equivalent participation at the Clark County Fair for a congruent period of time. Any person, so suspended, may appeal said suspension to the Clark County Agricultural Society Board of Directors by filing for such an appeal in writing at least seven (7) days prior to the opening of the Clark County Fair.
